A SUCCESSFUL SUMMER SEASON FOR AXIOMA

About AXIOMA

72.0m AXIOMA is designed for stunning beach-house style living. With scrumptious interiors by the legendary late designer Alberto Pinto and vast exteriors, including a huge Aft swimming pool, AXIOMA is one of the most sought-after yachts for unforgettable experiences with friends and family.

A successful summer season in Croatia

AXIOMA enjoyed a successful and busy summer season. With the COVID-19 pandemic causing travel restrictions across the Mediterranean, charters were moved to Croatia and its surrounding islands to provide a beautiful and secure yachting experience for clients. With easy coastal infrastructure and a reduction in tourists, clients were able to enjoy pristine beaches, crystal-clear water and enjoyable sight-seeing in popular destinations such as Dubrovnik.

The Adriatic itinerary also included the incredible Liska Fjord in Croatia, the Brijuni Islands, the capital of Istria Pula, the pretty city of Dalamtia, the marbled city of Split, the famous Golden Horn beach on the island Brac and the pristine Lastova Archipelago. Alongside AXIOMA's head chef, clients also visited local markets, an oyster farm, met producers of peaches, olive oil, truffles and lamb, and picked the seafood for dinner directly from local fishermen. The freshness, quality and variety of produce from Croatia is truly underrated and offers clients a gastronomic adventure, experiencing the best the country has to offer.

Great feedback and repeat bookings from clients proved that AXIOMA is one of the premier yachts available for comfort, safety, and exceptional entertainment. It has been 'Croatia's year' and clients have seen that it has the beauty and excitement of the Riviera, plus dramatic landscapes, national parks and pristine waters, as well as the benefit of more space and privacy.

Crew's merit

The AXIOMA Captain and crew have demonstrated their dedication to client experience and safety throughout the summer season. They have followed rigorous covid-19 safety procedures, keeping their guests protected and comfortable at all times. Above all, the team has shown their high level of discipline, organisation and professionalism, ensuring processes are followed closely without interrupting the experience for their clients. Despite the unprecedented challenges caused by covid-19, the AXIOMA team has continued to delight clients and make every trip memorable and fun. They have even been willing to sacrifice their own annual leave in order to limit their time on shore and avoid quarantine restrictions. It is due to their efforts that AXIOMA finished the summer season without a single case of covid-19 on board. The crew is undoubtedly AXIOMA's greatest asset and competitive advantage in the marketplace.

Lifestyle onboard and onshore

AXIOMA is renowned for providing curated, memorable experiences for all guests, including children.

- Michelin starred gastronomy

Head Chef Sascha Lenz takes pride in gourmet cuisine and involving guests in the onboard cooking experiences at the dining table, also including children with 'make your own pizza' evenings. Having won numerous awards, hosted TV food shows and holding a Michelin star ranking in Austria, Switzerland and Germany, Sascha and his team ensure each guest is wowed with inventive and creative menus, showcasing local ingredients and accommodating the dietary preference of each and every guest.

- Wellness experiences

With a dedicated spa, beautician, masseuse, yoga and Pilates instructor, guests come away feeling rejuvenated and renewed, with a health and wellness focus throughout the charter if desired. The 3D cinema room is perfect for relaxed evenings.

- Children's entertainment

AXIOMA is well equipped to keep children entertained, with the deckhand Harry Adams doubling as 'super nanny'. The crew are famous for their themed parties, with a huge array of props and costumes kept on board. From Harry Potter to casino nights, themed evenings appeal to the whole family, with the crew, including the captain, getting involved by dressing up.

- Water sports and toys

There's plenty to keep everyone entertained, with the water slide, Jungle Joe, sea bobs, jet skis, kayaks, sailing dinghies, stand-up paddle boards, a towable banana, as well as snorkels, masks and beach games for the Caribbean.

The winter Caribbean season 2020/2021

The winter Caribbean season will see AXIOMA available for charter from the 1st December 2020 to April 2021 in locations across the north Caribbean. This includes the stunning destinations of St Barths, Antigua, St Kitts, the British Virgin Islands and the Bahamas.

This winter season follows one of the most successful in 2019/2020. The itineraries are organised to minimise distances between locations, enabling the guests to fully maximise their time enjoying water sports, sightseeing or relaxing onboard. Tailored itineraries include a Cuban-themed BBQ in St Barths; water sports and sunset cocktails off Nevis; visits ashore in St Kitts; hikes to bubbling hot pools in the BVIs; feeding grapes to the rock iguanas of the Exumas; sports fishing and feeding nurse sharks in the Bahamas; exploring the beautiful beaches of Barbuda, as well as sunset cocktails and Arabian themed dinners on board in Antigua, to name just a few. Guests can even select the lobster they'd like for dinner from divers around the boat!

The Captain and crew are also closely monitoring the COVID-19 situation in the Caribbean and remain in contact with local agents for updates.
